Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

Neal Royer, 36, of 393 North Carlyn Avenue, principal of Rosemary Elementary School is a native of Decatur, Alabama, who discovered the beauty of the Santa Clara Valley while stationed here as an army supply officer during World War II.

Royer decided that there is no better place to live than the Santa Clara Valley while stationed at Ordnance Supply Point located at that time on the Mataschi Ranch

NEAL ROYER

South of the Almaden School.

Royer with his four older brothers, spent his early years on the family farm near Decatur, Alabama, and attended the public schools there where he was graduated from high school in 1935.

After high school graduation he spent three years as structural steel worker and semi-pro basketball player before entering Jacksonville State College as an education major in 1938.

He remained at Jacksonville State as an education student, and member of the freshman and varsity football and basketball teams until November 1940, at which time he entered active duty with Co. H, 167th Infantry, Alabama National Guard. For the next two years he served as machine gun corporal, sergeant instructor, personnel sergeant, and acting first sergeant in an infantry training center. In September, 1942, he was sent to the Army Ordnance Training Grounds at Aberdeen, Maryland for officer training where he was commissioned a second lieutenant in December, 1942. Further army service came as instructor at Santa Anita Ordnance School, and at the Campbell Ordnance Supply Point.

From San Jose he went to Boston where he sailed for England. Several months were spent in England and almost two years in France and Germany with General Patton's U. S. Third Army. He was awarded four battle stars for service there and also the Bronze Star medal for service to the army in direction of the use of captured ammunition against the enemy. He returned to the U.S. in late 1945, and was married to the former Dixie Shaffer of Merced, California, in November. He was released from active army duty in grade of Captain in January 1946.

Royer's first California home was established in San Francisco where he was employed as a Registration officers in the Vocational Rehabilitation and Education section of the Veterans Administration during 1946 and '47. During this period he spent evenings at the University of San Francisco completing his schooling in the Field of Business Administration with an Accounting major. Royer also qualified for an insurance broker's license at Golden Gate College.

Royer's army service created an urge to teach and in the spring of 1948, he entered San Jose State College where he obtained his A. B. degree.

In September 1948, he began teaching a sixth grade at the Moorpark school. During the next three years he served as eighth grade and boys P. E. teacher at Campbell Grammar School. The latter two years he also served as vice-principal of the school.

Again evenings were spent in school as he obtained his master's degree in school administration at

SMALL FRUIT CROP REDUCES THE SEASON PACK AT CANNERY HERE

Ray Howard, superintendent of Hunt Foods Inc. cannery on Harrison Avenue, reported a one-third reduction in fruit pack volume for 1953, as seasonal operations ended here, Friday. Volume shortage was due to three week long AFL cannery workers strike at the start of the season, and to a lighter crop of cherries, pears, peaches, apricots and fruits for fruit cocktails handled at the local plant. Unfavorable growing conditions resulted in smaller sized fruit, Howard said growers had informed him.

"There is no doubt that 1953 was an off season," David Rayner, County Agriculture Commissioner said. "The strike hurt canning operations, supply and demand factors were less favorable than in 1952, and the weather was not normal during the growing season. Warm weather during January and February undoubtedly had an effect on the 1953 crop."

Howard said the local plant is now in the winter phase of operations. This includes shipping fruit packed during the season and cleaning, greasing and oiling equipment for winter storage. Howard said there would be no further activity until the end of the year. At that time, he said, the plant starts its overhaul in preparation for the cherry pack expected in May.

Howard said the plant will employ 25 to 30 maintenance men throughout the rest of the season.

Rotary-Kiwanis Softball Playoff

Third and deciding game of softball between Campbell Kiwanis and Rotary Club will be played Tuesday October 13 at 7 p. m. at Campbell Grammar School Diamond, club spokesmen said yesterday.

Playoff has been scheduled due to a scorekeeping error in the second game, won by Kiwanis 16-14. Rotarians protested the score when it was discovered at the end of game that the Rotary side had been retired with one out. This situation was happily accepted by both groups, giving a bona-fide excuse for another game.

Rotary won the first game of this year's series 7-6. Kiwanis took the second 16-14.

Russell Cone And Bloodhounds Are Rotary Guests

Russel Cone, his bloodhounds "Calamity Jane" and "Daniel Boone", and the youngest deputy sheriff in the county, 13 year old Larry Bond of Los Gatos were Campbell Rotary guests at their regular meeting this week.

After a short talk on techniques of handling bloodhounds, and experiences he has had as a bloodhound owner, Cone answered the questions asked by the Rotary audience.

Cone said he has four bloodhounds available who have participated in 41 manhunts in 11 counties since 1950. Longest single hunt lasted six days Cone said, and the shortest was solved in 27 minutes.

Asked how his trips were financed, Cone said his dog food is furnished free of charge by Old English Dog Foods and Bernard Kamp Pack while on the trail. His expenses are paid for by the agency which requests use of the dogs. Cone said he was interested in having some organization sponsor his work with bloodhounds so he would at least break even when on hunts.

Cone was also anxious to correct an impression probably gained, he said, from too avid readers of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" that bloodhounds are vicious. They are friendly and docile as other breeds of dogs, Cone said, and it is due to their love of man, coupled with a keen sense of smell, that makes them invaluable as human trackers.

Thirteen year old Larry Bond, a fully accredited deputy sheriff because of his work with the dogs, has participated in all the hunts. He said he had traveled 100 miles on one four day trip through rough country. Bond's answer to a question about what he would do if he became lost in the forest was, "Pretend you're an Indian." He said he would build a shelter, eat anything that didn't taste bad or have a milky sap. For recognition he said he would pound on a hollow log and build a smokey fire, making sure the wood was gathered during daylight.

In other Rotary business during the meeting, it was announced that there would be a club assembly Monday, October 26 at Villa Felice.

There will be district conference on the 8th, 9th, and 10th of this month at Hobergs, in Lake County.

Campbell Kiwanis Club was victorious (16-4) in the second softball game played recently.

A playoff was suggested when during the second game in which Rotary scored nine runs in one inning, the side was retired with but one out.

Zoning Structure Set For New Developments

Shopping Center Projects Taken Under Advisement

At the public hearing on the master zoning map and ordinance held on Monday evening in the Campbell Grammar School auditorium, the city Council in accepting the map and ordinance from the planning commission, deferred for two weeks any action to approve, reject or amend them.

While closing the hearing on two applications for use and zone permits for the proposed shopping centers within the city limits, action for adoption was deferred also for two weeks. These applications are for the Herman Y. and Helen Rice property at the northwest corner of Winchester and Hamilton avenues and the Mayfair Packing Company development on the Kuehnis estate at Hamilton avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos highway. Both are million dollar projects, it was brought out at the hearing. Both applicants seek commercial status for areas zoned residentially under the proposed master zoning plan.

Traffic count on the San Jose-Los Gatos road at the intersection with Hamilton avenue is comparable to that of the Bayshore highway, it was brought out Monday night before the city council by proponents of commercial zoning of a corner there. F. E. Wallace, a nurseryman said he had counted 196 cars in five minutes and never less than 87 in five minute periods. With traffic moving within speed limits, 1200 cars per hour or 20 cars per minute have been counted.

TWO HUNDRED PRESENT

An estimated 200 persons attended the meeting to hear the plan outlined by Nestor Barrett, city planning consultant who presented the map and ordinance, prepared and officially recommended by the city's 14-member planning commission.

Barrett emphasized that the ordinance was not iron-clad, that it could and should grow with the city. He said that every written and oral request received from interested property owners at the two public hearings of the planning commission had received separate and individual consideration.

Optimistic Future Is Seen For Business Development

An optimistic outlook for the future of Campbell was envisioned on Monday evening as the pattern for a deliberately planned development was tentatively set up through a master plan. Spokesmen seeking commercial zoning of their properties told of prospects for the Emporium Department store of San Francisco locating in a 113,000 square foot building at Hamilton avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos road intersection, and of a branch of one of the nation's largest limited price dry goods store locating at Winchester and Hamilton avenues. Both are parts of million dollar development projects which today await the pleasure of the city council.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant stated that the 33.5 acres of commercial, and 274 acres of industrial area designed for proposed zoning, can adequately serve a future population of 42,500 in Campbell. He said he based his estimate on a study by Urban Land Institute, an independent research firm with headquarters in Washington.

Barrett further stated that this population could be reached in Campbell, if the city expanded its present limits to encompass an area bounded on the north by Dutard avenue, on the west by the San Tomas Aquino Creek, on the east by Leigh Avenue, and on the south by Casey road.. If this expanded area were to be fully developed, Barrett said, into lots of 6,000 square feet each, and each lot were to house an average family, the resultant population of 42,500 could be served by the presently proposed zoning allowance for industrial acreage.

A petition bearing 107 signatures of business owners in Campbell, just seven short of unanimous, favored the proposed Herman Y. Rice shopping center in which a super market,medical center, dry goods store and other enterprises would be located. Property owners in the immediate vicinity likewise petitioned for its approval, and assurance was made from the floor that within six months after zoning the plans would be completed, and within one year the stores erected. Winchester avenue from Stevens Creek Road was envisioned as the Fifth Avenue of the Peninsula, and Hamilton avenue was tentatively signified as an intra-city business street leading to the Willow Glen area.

The Regional center at the Los Gatos-San Jose road intersection would have, besides the Emporium or a department store of comparable importance, a bank, a restaurant and numerous service shops. Some 20,000 cars pass this intersection daily, it was stated.

There were appeals for caution in permitting poultry hatcheries, pet hospitals and used car lots to become established on major streets.

G. A. Lathrop of 306 North Winchester said the tremendous activity in industrial development just east of Campbell is bound to improve the status of residential properties, stating that besides the Ford plant at Milpitas, General Motors has acquired 73 acres near Berryessa and the Sieberlin Tire Company has acquired a large site near Western Pacific properties there.

A dozen or so spokesmen from the floor endorsed the proposed Kuehnis property development and sentiment seemed to indicate both projects have merit. The council, hearing proponents and opponents, closed the hearings and took the applications under advisement for two weeks.

Albert Coyle, representing a mortgage company, indicated that already there are more applicants for space at the Rice project than can be accommodated under present plans. David S. Lull, speaking regarding the Kuenhes project said a 13 acre development might also include an open air theatre.

Mayor Richard W. Morton, ably conducting the meeting, prefaced

ZONING MAP SETS PATTERN FOR CITY GROWTH

The master zone map and ordinance submitted Monday night by Nestor Barrett, planning consultant and the city planning commission, would segregate the city into various use classifications by color and symbol. Industrial areas shown in black on the map are designated by the letter "M" with numbers to indicate the size of the operation. Light manufacturing areas are marked "M-1". Heavy industry is symbolized by "M-2" markings. Campbell business areas carry a "C" (for commercial) designation. Areas zoned for light business are marked "C-1". Zones for retail establishments are "C-2".

There are three types of residential zones in the city according to the proposed map: Single family dwellings are marked "R-1". Multiple dwellings under one roof are marked "R-2", and the "R-3" classification signifies any type of multiple dwelling.

In addition, industrial and commercial areas may carry an "S" classification. Applicants for use of these areas must apply for use permits from the city, in order that proper health and safety measures may be enforced.

Light industrial zones, (M-1) are located on the north side of Hamilton Avenue from San Jose-Los Gatos Road to Harrison Street, and along the west side of San Jose-Los Gatos Road, between Hamilton Avenue and Campbell Avenue to the Los Gatos Creek.

The area bounded by Harrison Avenue on the west, Campbell Avenue on the south, the railroad tracks on the east as far north as Latimer Avenue has also been designated M-1.

Another commercial area zoned M-1 is bounded by Campbell Avenue on the north, railway Avenue on the west and by the Los Gatos Creek on the east and south.

Heavy industry (M-2) may locate in Campbell, according to the submitted map, in the area of Los Gatos Creek bed, from the city limits on the south and east, the railroad on the west along the creek to Campbell Avenue.

A small section, bounded by Campbell Avenue, First Street, and the railroad has also been designated for use by heavy industry.

Moderately heavy commercial zones (C-2, C-2-S), are indicated on the proposed zoning map, and consist of two parcels at the southeast and southwest corner of the intersection of Rincon and Winchester Road, on the east and west sides of Winchester between Rincon and Campbell Avenue; both sides of Campbell Avenue from Winchester Avenue to Poplar Ave. with the exception of the M-1, and M-2 area on the south side of Campbell Avenue from Railroad Avenue to the Los Gatos Creek.

C-2 and C-2-S are also indicated for six parcels of property on the east side of San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Campbell Avenue extension and Fewtrell Drive.

Light commercial areas (C-1, C-1-S) are listed for property on the east side of Winchester from Hamilton Avenue north to the city limits and 390 feet deep on Rosemary Lane.

Four parcels of land on Hamilton Avenue off Central and Harrison Avenues are also designated C-1-S.

Multiple dwellings (R-3-S) are indicated on Winchester on the east side from Latimer Avenue halfway to Hamilton. Lots facing

New CUHS Class Helps Blind Students Learn

New to Campbell High this year is a program designed especially for the blind and visually handicapped students.

These are regularly enrolled students who attend the same classes and receive the same assignments as their classmates.

Mr. Sinclair, the specially trained director of this program, helps them in many ways. Room 63, or the "Resource Room" as he calls it, offers a secluded place for these students to spend their study periods, often with a Student Reader. The readers are students who devote their study hall time to this.

Many of the students who are handicapped are able to read very large print, and others can read braille. Braille textbooks are available, and Mr. Sinclair transcribes other material for their use, including mathematics.

He is president of the California Association of Student Councils which will hold fourteen conferences during the school year. The cabinet is composed of presidents of high school student bodies inaugurating several high school projects including civil defense and a study of the evils of narcotics.

Don, as state president, is a delegate to the National Association of Student Councils, which include 450 students from all sections of the United States.

Because of activities in student affairs, Don has received an invitation by Governor Knight to attend a state traffic safety conference on school participation to achieve greater safety among drivers.

DUCK HUNTERS HAVE THEIR PICK OF 13 AREAS

During California's upcoming waterfowl hunting seasons, October 16 to November 18, and December 8 to January 10, duck hunters will have their pick of 13 public shooting grounds operated by the Department of Fish and Game throughout the State.

From northern Lassen County to Imperial County, more than 30,000 acres of the choicest waterfowl hunting terrain will be operated on a first-come, first served basis. As many as 2,500 hunters may be accommodated on the areas at one time.

In an effort to place the State's waterfowl management areas on a pay-as-you-go basis, the California Fish and Game Commission earlier this year authorized a general charge of $2 per hunter per day for use of the shooting grounds. All were open without charge in past years, except for a $5.00 blind use fee.

A charge of $5.00 per hunter will be in effect at the Imperial waterfowl management area for use of locations with a blind. Hunters under the age of 16, accompanied by an adult, will pay $2.50 for the use of a blind.

The Madeline Plains and Honey Lake areas in Lassen County will be operated without fee, while the Napa Marshes area in Napa County will offer a seasonal permit for $3.00.

The areas will be open to public shooting on Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, the opening and closing dates of each legal waterfowl hunting season, and Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and election day when these holidays fall within the legal open season. All areas will be closed on Christmas and New Year's Day.

American Legion Auxiliary will hold their next meeting October 14 at IOOF hall with Mrs. H. A. Olson presiding. Initiation will be held for new members and plans will be completed for the October 28 potluck which will be held with the men of Legion Post 596.

CAMPBELL HI-LITES

by Bob Olson

The longer many of us are in the teaching profession the more we realize one basic truth: the more we try to help your fellows and girls to learn, to develop, to take their places in the world, the more it is we gain a sense of accomplishment and well being ourselves. Perhaps this is an argument to encourage people to become teachers that is sometimes overlooked. Certainly it is one form of happiness and satisfaction that money can never buy.

This truism impresses me whenever I talk things over with the other faculty members of your high school. For again and again they tell me something like this:

"I came to school tired and unenthused today. Yet before half of the first period was over I caught a contagious enthusiasm from the kids. They've got so much pep it runs over onto everyone around them."

"I like teaching because it keeps me young. You can't be an old fogey working with today's youth. Why, their very language is full of vigor."

This must be the reason Mrs. Adele Charlson enjoys working with her Future Homemakers so much. When this group (especially under the guidance of its new student leader, sprightly Vondell Kennedy) starts its kitchen calesthenics, who could be lackadaisical?

And this must also be the reason that Mr. C. P. Klassen is always full of oomph. Advisor for Campbell High's Spirit Commission, he led us all in community singing during last Tuesdays' assemblies and ran chills up the oldest spines in the hall. There's a lot of spirit around CUHS this fall, and it was evident in the auditorium as we all sang

Stand up and cheer
Cheer loud and clear for dear old Campbell
For today we raise
The red and blue above the others
Our sturdy team now is fighting
And we are sure to win the fray
We've got the vim
We're sure to win
For this is dear old Campbell High!

Tuesday's assembly also featured Diane Bowman who told all of us about her last Summer's trip to Girls' State in Sacramento. Living like Wacs for a week, these girls learned a lot about government by practicing it in a mock convention. Her descriptions of their mass singing of the "Lord's Prayer", their barrack-like existence in a huge gym ("always full of talk and occasionally even some sleep") and their admitted longing for the company of boys had an enervating ring of both humor and sincerity.

But perhaps the adolescent enthusiasm and what it does to us oldsters is exhibited in drama advisor, Ken Wallace, more than any of us. He spouts more superlatives than a preview of Cinemascope and seems to have more energy than Martin and Lewis combined. And superlative is certainly the word to describe his latest extravaganza, "Campbell Caravan", which will play the high school auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings, October 23 and 24. It will feature more people (120) than any CUHS dramatic effort ever has: Wallace assures us that this large cast his increased in histrionic quality as well as quantity. The show promises to have more variety than ever too, including everything from pie-in-the-eye slapstick to the greatest one act play ever written in 1903. For the highlight of "Caravan" will be the Santa Clara Valley premiere of the thrilling mystery drama, "Monkey's Paw," an eerie melodrama concerning three fateful wishes, the last of which can lead only to a horrible demise. It will star Ray Mossholder as Mr. White, the man making the wishes, Karla Edsinger as his terrified wife, Bud Feasel, on whom the monkey's paw wreaks its vengeance, Dick Kolte as St.-Major Morris, the first owner to know the horror of the paw, and Gary Fuller as Mr. Sampson who must carry the word of death.

Much of the Saturday night performance will be carried out into the air waves and will be broadcast locally over KEEN. Mr. Wallace is anxious to give his crew radio experience because he feels it has such high professional calibre. "Frankly," he says our drama director looking you straight in the eye, "this is the greatest year talent-wise this high school has ever known." Nancy and Ruth Ann Richards in their vaudeville skit make up the school's first sister act; this will be the first time that the Campbell Choir has ever appeared in a variety show, and Bill Moontero will be the first boy to do a hula on the CUHS stage.

We're particularly looking forward to Janice Mohler's original ballet choreography based on western tunes and Carol Schowposky's State Fair prize winning baton-twirling routine. The students are all wondering who the mystery faculty member appearing in the "Dragnet" skit will be.

Come out on either the 23rd or 24th whether you like Red Buttons type comedy or the Nutcracker Suite Ballet. You won't be disappointed in this largest show in Campbell history.

Don't underestimate our local football team just because it dropped its inaugural game to Oakland's Castlemont last Friday 18-6. Big Bill Gregg looked mighty good setting up a touchdown with that sensational 27 yard drive of his, and Larry Sutton's pin-point passing hints that he'll be a quarterback the whole league will fear once he gets a couple more games under his belt. We felt that Olon Forrest, a varsity lineman (and the only student ever to score 100% on one of our history tests!) summed up last week's defeat when he said, "I doubt that we'll see another passing attack like their Willie Sousa set up all season. Gosh, he was in our hair all afternoon. Team spirit is higher than ever. All we needed was some game experience."

Well, we'll see just what we have got when we face Mountain View here on our field tomorrow afternoon at three. The Eagles looked good for three quarters but they lost their opener too, melting under Jefferson's fourth quarter power.

And, as Mr. Klassen says, winning isn't everything. Our rooting section sounded better than ever and our new cheerleaders are almost splitting their seams leading us in the old "Let's Go, Campbell High, Let's Go" routine, which seems to stir our stalwarts more than anything. Come on out tomorrow afternoon, and yell with us, and sing along with our 56 piece band, and watch us win our first SCVAL game.

ORCHIDS TO . . . Carol Foster, Gail Higdon, and Arlene Klein, newly elected officers of Mrs. Virginia Jenning's sensational Modern Dance Club. No other high school has a unit quite like this terpsichorean group of ours. You'll see some of their efforts in Mr. Wallace's Big Show. AND MORE OF THE SAME TO . . . Mrs. Gleed's Cafeteria Crew who are outdoing themselves in tasty dishes this school year. AND TO YOU . . . if youre joining out P. T. A. now in its current membership drive and out to continue the honor of being the largest high school P. T. A. in northern California.

THERE'S NO EXCUSE for anyone lacking inspiration in the study halls anymore. The walls in both 33 and 34 are full of pictures our student artists recentl ysubmitted to the County Fair exhibits. What we like about them is that you can tell what each one represents—not one bit of silly surrealism in the bunch.

NICEST GUY we've met in a long while is Mr. Sinclair who makes his Campbell High home in Room 63, which he's labeled his "resource room." He's our new teacher of the visually handicapped and blind who has made available a whole library of large print and braille textbooks. We're only one of three high schools in the state to have such a program and are mighty lucky to have to have someone like Sinclair direct it for us.

BUT TO GET BACK TO OUR ORIGINAL PEP THEME, we asked some of our English students to compose four liners this week and thought that Ron Geary expresses the idea better than we can:

We've got the Spirit; We've got the drive
We've got the team—and sakes alive
With all this talent and will to win
We're bound to be Conference champs again!

HONORS BUSINESS WOMEN . . . Mayor Richard W. Morton hands Campbell Business and Professional Women's president, Alma Fanning, the official proclamation approved at city council meeting Monday night in which he urged all organizations and citizens to recognize the civic accomplishments of American Business women.

Colombo has issued an appeal to persons depending on bus service for transportation to contact him by mail at 17612 Payne Ave., San Jose. LOS GATOS CONCERT ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES 53-54 PROGRAM SERIES

Announcement of their 1953-54 concert series program was made today by the Los Gatos Community Concert Association. Highlight of the coming season will be the appearance in February of the sensational young American bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Association, George London.. After London's debut at the Metropolitan in "Aida", in 1951, he was hailed by Virgil Thompson of the New York Herald-Tribune as "one of the greatest singing actors we have any of us known or remembered." The musical world has followed his successes in opera in Vienna, London, at Sa Scala in Milan and his many appearances on television and radio.

The complete concert program for 53-54 will be: November 2nd, John Sebastian and Dorothy Jarnac. Mr. Sebastian is a noted harmonica virtuoso and Miss Jarnac is the dancing star of many broadway hits. They share a sprightly program that is being received with fine enthusiasm.

January 2nd, Gary Graffman, brilliant young American pianist, winner of many distinguished awards, soloist with many of our greatest orchestras.

February 16th, George London, bass-baritone of opera and concert.

March 25th, The Carolers, a singing group of five solo voices, soprano, two tenors, baritone and bass-baritone, offer an unusually flexible program for the classics to the contemporary.

A non-profit organization, the Los Gatos Concert Association was started in 1948 with Robert Hamsher as president and Dr. Gustave Fassin, vice-president. The group was composed of men and women in Los Gatos and Saratoga who believed that the area could support concerts by artists of national renown. This was accomplished by joining up with Community Concerts, Inc. of New York, a subsidiary of Columbia Artists Management.

In the spring of each year a membership campaign of one week is conducted after which no memberships or tickets for single concerts are sold. The membership cost is surprisingly low for the high quality of the four concerts per season and the association allots a substantial number of student memberships at half price. Concerts are held in the auditorium of the Los Gatos Union High School.

Officers of the Association are: Mr. Christian F. Jenkins, president; Mr. George A. Hastings, first vice-president; Mrs. Stuart Hahan, second vice-president; Miss Jeanette Jones, secretary; Miss Leonora Ghetti, corresponding secretary; Mr. Harwood Warriner, treasurer; and Mrs. Phillip Jefferson, assistant treasurer.

George London, sensational young American bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Association, has been signed to appear February 16th next year as a part of the Los Gatos Community Concert Association's 1953-54 concert series.

ROSEMARY HOME AND SCHOOL CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

Program co-chairman, Mrs. Travis Brett and Mrs. Angelo Lacitinola announce that plans for the first fall meeting of the Rosemary Home and School Club to be held on Tuesday, October 13, at 7:30 p. m., have been completed and the evening meeting will convene under the leadership of Mr. Verdun Romer, president, with a brief business session.

Other activities of the first get-together will include open house and parent-teacher group meetings to acquaint fathers and mothers with the school and with faculty members.

The annual membership drive of the club under the leadership of membership chairman, Mrs. Peter Kocjan, is well under way and will conclude on the coming of the 13th. Prizes, to classes securing the highest percentage of members, include a free cartoon movie hour for winning primary room and a free trip to a Campbell High School football game for the winning upper classes.

Child care is being arranged for by Mrs. Lawrence Evans for both pre-school children and students to encourage both parents to attend and take an active part in the Home and School Club program.

CAMPBELL PTA HAS FIRST MEET OF THE NEW YEAR

That home and school relationship should be easy in acomplishment was the contention of Dr. William Rogers of San Jose State College in a talk Tuesday evening before an enthusiastic audience at the first PTA meeting of the year at the Campbell Grammar school.

Dr. Rogers said that parents and teachers together might well talk about growth and development of the child and to work out a sensible interlocking program for each age phase.

Opening the meeting, members of Den 5 of Pack 19 under the supervision of Mrs. L. Sloone, led in the flag salute. A short business meeting was then conducted by Mrs. Richard Morton, following which a community sing was directed by Ben Ziegler, music chairman. It was a contest to see which could sing loudest, parents or teachers.

Mrs. Dorothy Royce then introduced the teachers who went directly to their classrooms. Open house was then observed with refreshments being served in the cafeteria with fifth grade mothers as hostesses.

Family Service To Present Play Next Tuesday

The Family Service Association of Santa Clara County in cooperation with the San Jose Theater Guild are presenting High Pressure Area, a psychological play for parents on Tuesday, October 13, 1953 at 7:30 p. m. in the Herbert Hoover Jr. High School Cafeteria, 1671 Park Avenue. The play, written by Nora Stirling of the American Theater Wing and distributed by the National Association for Mental Health, concerns itself with the trials and tribulations of children and parents during the teen age. It is open to the public, free of charge.

Members of the San Jose Theater Guild featured are Janie Reid, Lois Pfeifffer, Mrs. Marvel Currlin, and Mr. Albert Conroy. The play is directed by Alma Helms.

The Family Service Association of Santa Clara County, a red feather agency partially supported by the Campbell Community Fund, is sponsoring this program as one means of informing its community sponsors of its counseling methods and objectives. Following the presentation of the play which is designed to invoke audience reactions, those present will divide into buzz groups led by the family counselors on the staff. After the buzz group discussions, the group will reconvene for a summation, and a brief presentation of the kind of adolescent problems which are presented to the Association. The public is welcome and no reservations are required.

SERVICE NOTES

Marine Private First Class Joseph Carlentine, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carlentine of 25 South Winchester Road, Campbell, is attending the bakers' course at the Food Service School here as a student baker.

During the eight weeks' instruction, Carlentine will learn all phases of bakery technology, field baking, and pastry baking. In the post bakery shop, the student will work with the various types of machinery similar to those used in commercial bakeries.

The California Leatherneck will then spend one week in the field where baking will be done with improvised equipment.

We will also be trained in the baking of pastries such as pies' cookies, puddings, basic sweet dough, and quick bread. In addition, the course will include a short period of instruction covering ice cream making.

Before entering the Marine Corps in March, 1953, Carlentine attended Campbell Union High.

He received recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, and was stationed at Camp J. H. Pendleton, Oceanside prior to his assignment to the Food Service School.

Bill Harrison's Virginian Cafe In Campbell Soon

Bill Harrison, a Virginian by birth, well known restauranteur of Santa Clara County has purchased Martin's Cafe at the intersection of Campbell avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos road and today announced plans for opening one of the finest eating places deep down on the peninsula. Name of the place will be the Virginian, the food will be all American of home style.

Harrison had a cafe down Mexico way at Taxco where an art colony was influential and he built up quite a patronage with Duncan Hines giving him repeated endorsements. Then he went into the army and on being discharged figured that the Peninsula was a good place to start again so he originated the Starlight at 12th and East Santa Clara which he made prosper. Hilda and her pies and cakes were well known to patrons there. She will be at the Virginian when it opens next Wednesday. Harrison says there will be a number of innovations at the Virginian, but the main thing will be the quality of the food. There will be space for group parties, afternoon teas and service club meetings.

County Council Adopts Program For Boy Scouts

An active year for the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and the Adult leaders of the local Boy Scout Council was assured with the adoption of the 1953-54 program during the annual meeting of the Council held on Wednesday evening in San Jose. Each of the six operating committees and the Commissioner outlined and received approval for their yearly program.

The Advancement program presented by Chairman William Powell, calls for the completing of the Merit Badge Counselor list in each district, and a training program to inform Unit Leaders of advancement procedures and techniques. The national campaign to have 40 percent of all Boy Scouts first class by Scout Week in February, 1954, will be promoted by the advancement committee.

Dr. Dwight M. Bissell, chairman of the Health and Safety committee, reported plans to promote health and safety measures at meeting places and camping trips. The committee will provide the necessary medical care at the 1954 Hi-Sierra Camp and plans a public health course during the summer of 1954 for Boy Scouts.

The Camping and Activities Committee report was presented by Hal Gardner for Chairman Fred Hilton. Their program includes the following Council-wide events: celebration of Scout Week from February 7 to 13, 1954, Camporees on a district basis during April, a Council-wide Scout-O-Rama during May and the opening date for the Council Hi Sierra camp was set for Sunday, June 27, to continue for eight weeks.

Membership growth for the Council was outlined by Ellis Howard, chairman of the Council Organization and Extension committee. A total of 17 new units are expected to be organized by January 1, 1954, and the council boy membership to be 4,586. A chapter review for all units re-registering will be conducted by the district organization and extension commitee.

The training program outlined by Training Chairman Dr. Levi Gilbert is the most ambitious one announced in the history of the Council. A University of Scouting will start October 15 at the Herbert Hoover Junior High School in San Jose for all volunteer leaders. Courses will be held on a district basis.

The training before commissioning plan announced by the National Council will be carried out in the Council, requiring all unit leaders to be trained before receiving their National commission. A year's period is allowed to complete the training.

William McLaughlin, the finance chairman, reported on the 1954 finance outlook and announced the finance committee would continue the sustaining membership campaign to secure the necessary funds to operate the Council above the amount secured from the various Community Chest campaigns. During the past few years , the Chest's contributions were not sufficient to meet the needs of the Council, declared Chairman McLaughlin and the Sustaining Membership was the means of supplementing this income.

Council Commissioner Milton Ryder reported all district commissioner staffs functioning and announced an objective of 45 Neighborhood Commissioners by January 1, 1954. The Commissioner Staff is the service organization of the Council giving direct help to Units and Sponsoring institutions. This service will be stepped up during the coming year. year.

A full endorsement of the programs and plans for the new Scouting year was given by the Board, presided over by President Clark Bradley, who thanked the Operating Committeemen for their fine work during the past year and their plans for the future.

Los Gatos Church To Hold Christian Science Lecture

The practical application of Bible teachings and their spiritual power to the solution of today's problems will be the topic of a public lecture on Christian Science to be delivered in Los Gatos on October 19, 1953, by John D. Pickett of Chicago.

On a nationwide tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Pickett will speak under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientists, in the church edifice, 238 E. The FARMERS CORNER

by Allen F. Mather
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

OUR CATTLEMEN

A person doesn't have to be a ranch hand to know that the cattle industry is in a bad way—not with steers selling as low as 10 cents a pound.

That you can't buy meat at your butcher's for any such price is no fault of our cattlemen. They stand as one element of our economy having no federal subsidy to distort the operation of the law of supply and demand. As a consequence, if meat goes to two cents, that is what the rancher will get—and no more.

This is the way they want it. Not that they don't have their complaints. They do but they are not aimed at the free market. They believe in the free market, advocate it, but since they are not running the country they can do nothing to push it through to the consumer.

In figures released by the government, one news periodical recently had this to say: By 1975, the U. S. will need to set a "fifth plate" for every four persons now consuming.

Setting this fifth plate will demand an increase in cattle production equivalent to all the present production of Texas plus Oklahoma, Wyoming, Utah, and Nevada combined.

The government bases its estimate on our rapidly rising population, which it says, will hit the 175-180 million figure by 1960.

NEW FILM

Cattlemen know this, or they feel it. How else, in the face of ten-cent cattle, could they stand independently pat?

Moreover, in the midst of this personal depression, they are actively engaged in operations to expand their industry.

For years ranchers have eyed the 15 million or more acres of California land, eminently suited for grazing, which stands idle because of the brush which overgrows it.

They are clearing this land and, in the hope of stimulating their own activity.

Pheasant Season Open November 21

When California's pheasant hunting season opens November 21, hunters will find more than 150,000 acres of Central Valley "pheasant bowl" land bearing the welcome sign under the State's cooperative hunting program.

Department of Fish and Game workers are putting the finishing touches on plans to manage 18 public shooting areas under the five-year-old cooperative program. All except two will be available to licensed sportsmen without charge.

While final landowner sign-up has not been completed, game management employees are aiming for a total open acreage of 150,000, compared to 135,000 acres last year. Hunter capacity at any one time will be increased by at least 600 over the 11,700 total allowed in 1962. Three new areas have been added this year.

California's sucessful cooperative hunting program is designed to provide public access to hunting land while protecting the cooperating landowner. Ranchers are permitted to set aside restricted zones where they and their friends may hunt with written permits.

"COME CLOSER, PLEASE"—says the Tin Can Man to Sonja Mariani, 1953 Fishermen's Fiesta queen, as she climbs the rigging of the purse seiner Clermont in San Pedro harbor. The 20-foot figure was the principal character aboard American Can Company's "Wizard of Oz" entry in the annual decorated boat parade, theme of which was "Beloved Stories." Fiesta inaugurates a new season for thousands of Golden State fishermen who team up with canners and can-makers to make the Los Angeles harbor area the fish-canning capital of the world. California's fish pack has an annual value of more than $100,000,000, according to the can-making firm which supplies billions of containers every year to the state's food processors.

Pansies And Violas For Winter Color

Color in the garden when winter rain and cold make pleasant gardening impossible is the reward to the prudent gardener who plants his bed of pansies or border of violas now. Color that lasts, color that is rich, warm, and exciting--color that rewards when color in the garden is at a premium.

Pansies and violas are top favorites for winter bloom for the very good reason that they produce good color in good quantity during the most adverse season of the year. They are cool weather plants that thrive in practically all parts of California during the winter months.

Beds for pansy and viola must be raised to provide good drainage as these plants will not tolerate continual wet feet. They require steady applications of light fertilizer and prefer a light sandy loam lightened with generous applications of peat moss or steer manure.

Pinching back about once a month to maintain bushy cmpact growth and to encourage new lateral growth will help to keep the planting attractive and useful. Regular spraying to control aphids and red spider is also conducive to better plants and a much longer prime blooming period.

NATION HONORS WINE INDUSTRY NEXT WEEK

California's important wine industry will be honored throughout the nation next week, October 10-17) with the annual observance of National Wine Week.

The week will call attention to the excellence of California wines and during the week merchants will exert efforts to acquaint more people with them.

California wines make up nearly 90 per cent of the nation's wine consumption but there is a lot of room for increased consumption. For example, the per capita consumption of wine in California is twice that of any other state. If national per capita consumption equalled that of California, the wine industry would have fewer problems.

Trade barriers erected by many States against California wine are responsible to some extent for this disparity. For example, Michigan recently enacted a law fixing a minimum price of 85 cents a fifth on California wines, because California embargoed Michigan apples.

California vintners are emphasizing quality in their wines. They are also promoting wine education by means of wine tasting and other devices, seeking to build discriminating wine consumers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. JOHNSON, of 705 Ridgely Drive returned from a week's trip as guests of Farmer's Insurance Group Silver Anniversary Convention in Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles this week. The Johnson's toured all points of interest in southern California. All sections of the United States were represented at the convention, the Johnson's said.

Council Meeting

Barrett outlined and located on a large master zoning map, the various zones and their classifications. (see other columns).

Mayor Richard W. Morton then invited comments from the audience after he had cautioned it on rules of order.

BUSINESS ON HIGHWAY

Attorney Norman A. Stoner, representing Winchester Avenue property owners, Messrs. Garrison, Rutherford, Perotta, and Austin, argued for complete commercial zoning of Winchester Avenue within city limits. He said that the growth of Campbell was on the highway. In his opinion Stevens Creek Road and Winchester Avenue would be the future "Fifth Avenues" of the entire peninsula.

"Campbell has not grown with the rest of the peninsula", he said, "because areas justified by traffic for "natural" commercial development, such as Winchester avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road have been throttled by restrictive zoning."

Said Stoner, "A planning body can't sit in an ivory tower and plan business the way it should go. You must zone where business men want business to go."

To illustrate his argument, Stoner cited examples of recent mushroom business growth on main traffic arteries from Palo Alto to San Jose, with a resultant loss of business to old established business sections.

In opposition to Stoner's argument for commercial zoning of Winchester Avenue, G. A. Lathrop, property owner at 306 North Winchester Ave., objected to commercial zoning of Winchester Avenue between Campbell and Latimer Avenues, and said he had presented a signed petition from residents of that area, who would object to paying commercial taxes on their land.

Lathrop said he didn't think there would be much business development of Winchester Avenue because "Campbell will always be a bedroom town for San Jose."

Other Campbell property owners made known their zoning preferences before the hearing closed.

GRANGE MAY BUILD

J. R. Locke of Rt. 1, Box 302, spokesman for Orchard City Grange, objected to the R-1 classification for the Grange parking lot on corner of Sanford Avenue and Fourth Street. He said the property was purchased as business property on which the Grange intended to build a new meeting place. He was informed by Barrett that property could be used to build a grange hall, since it was in a transition zone, 100 feet from a business area, in which case additional uses would be permitted.

OTHERS SPEAK

William C. Henley, of 121 South Winchester Ave. wanted his lot zoned C-2 instead of R-1.

W. W. Johnson of San Jose Los Gatos Road protested M-1 zoning in his area because he wanted his property considered on a par with other residential property, "not a stepchild."

C. C. Gilliam of West Rincon Avenue said that if R-2 zoning was permitted on his street instead of R-1 "it would be a mess."

R. E. Weaver, subdivider said he would like duplex zoning along Hamilton Avenue east of Dover School, and for his four lots on Leigh Avenue off Sheffield Avenue.

F. E. Wallace, of 351 North San Jose-Los Gatos Road commended the work of the planning commission. He said he didn't think that San Jose-Los Gatos Road should be zoned residential.

Mrs. E. R. Kennedy, of 61 Catalpa Lane said it would be better if the planning commission only had the power to pass on suggested plans of property owners rather than force a "blanket" plan down property owners throats.

READY TO GO

At the regularly scheduled public hearing on the Rice application attorney Colin Peters submitted three petitions from neighboring residents who favored the proposed shopping center. Albert Coyle, president of Mortgage Finance Company questioned by Mayor Morton, said the proposed Winchester Avenue shopping center has more tenants than it can handle. He said a super market, a variety store, the New York office of one of the country's largest limited price dry goods store has asked for space. Coyle, who would finance the million dollar deal, if commercial zoning of the Rice property were granted, said in response to the mayor's questions that the center would be built as a complete unit, with the possible exception of the medical-dental unit. He would be willing to agree to a one year construction time limit, he said.

Optimistic Report

the hearing by rules of conduct. He said the master zone plan was for the city as a whole rather than for the individuals with specific interests. He said the planning commission had submitted the zoning structure for a decision by the council to accept or reject. He warmly commended members of the commission for their tireless work, and said the decision will be an important one. Nestor Barrett said the zoning plan is flexible only to the extent that it bring order and community growth for a reasonable number of years.

Central and Harrison Avenues from Campbell Avenue north to Hamilton with the exception of lots fronting on Hamilton and Campbell Avenues, as well as lots fronting Winchester from Catalpa Lane north to Alice Avenue were given R-2 or R2-S classifications.

The R-1 area is bounded by Foote Avenue on the west, El Patio on the north, Poplar on the east, and Campbell Ave. on the south. excepting lots facing Campbell Ave.

All areas not marked on the tentative zoning map submitted Monday evening are intended to be contrued as residential, Barrett said.

DEMOCRATS PLAN PUBLIC OPINION SURVEY SUNDAY

Questions on local and national issues will be asked residents of Campbell this Sunday, October 11, when the Santa Clara County Democratic Club conducts a public opinion survey.

The Democratic Club will seek to determine public feeling on the Campbell zoning map and ordinance recently submitted to the city council and will attempt to compile an accurate public opinion on the downtown business parking situation, as well as questions having to do with the present national administration.

City councilman Joseph V. Gomes, and Campbell Postmaster Ira H. Grim, were up with the sun yesterday morning, loading lifles, sleeping bags, and other camping paraphernalia into Gomes' pickup for a week safari in quest of venison on the hoof in the Reno, Nevada, area.

BUCS SEEK FIRST GRID WIN OVER MOUNTAIN VIEW FRIDAY; GAME STARTS AT 3:00 P.M. HERE

Injuries, a bad case of fumbelities, and opening game jitters cost Campbell High School their first ball game of the season last Friday, against Castlemont (18-6), but Coach Jim Muir's tongue lashing, and this week's rock-sock practice sessions which emphasized blocking, pass defense and more speed should put them in fairly good shape to meet the veteran Mountain View High School contingent tomorrow afternoon at Campbell. Kick off time is 3 p. m.

Considerably weakened by the absence of Russ Camilleri at right flank, Gary Luckhart at right tackle, right halfback Don Davis, and tackle Eric Proteva, the Bucs running attack bogged down last week. Buc passer Larry Sutton, while completing six out of 12, was rushed, and big Bill Gregg failed to get a strike in three attempts.

Camilleri was sidelined with 30 stitches in his leg as a result of a motorcycle accident two weeks ago. Coach Muir said he would be out for four or five weeks. Luckhart is out with a pulled muscle sustained in a practice session. He may not play tomorrow, according to Muir. And Eric Proteva, transfer student from Iran last year, has a broken nose. Don Davis, first string right half missed last Friday's game by attending a student government conference at Sacramento. He should be on deck against Mt. View, however, Muir said.

Buccaneer fumbles caused the loudest groans from the Campbell side of the high school bleachers. Two Buc drives came to a grinding halt in a mad scramble for a lost ball. In each case Castlemont recovered. First Castlemont touchdown followed a Campbell fumble. A twenty two yard drive from the Campbell 28 to the mid-field stripe was halted by a Castlemont recovery early in the first quarter. Again in the third period, a twenty yard surge from the Campbell 23 to the 43 ended with Castlemont in possession.

While the Buccaneers ground out more yardage than their opponents (180-123), Castlemont aerials netted 53 yards with 13 completions out of 20 attempts. Willy Sousa, all Oakland Athletic League quarterback triggered the winner's air blast. They spotted Campbell's weak right side early, too, and made consistent headway in that direction. Castlemont scored both touchdowns in the first half.

Campbell tallied in the third period after Bill Gregg chewed up 27 yards to set up a scoring pass, Larry Sutton to end Tony Schraub.

Muir said tomorrow's opponents will be a tough crew to beat. They are strong, he said, with eight out of 11 veterans back this year. Almost the whole 1952 first string line will oppose the Buc's tomorrow. Three first string backs will be in action against the Campbellites. They have much speed, a big line, and good passing, Muir said.

The Mountain View Eagles pose a passing threat in the arm of Johnny Anderson, flipping from the "T" slot, and a running danger in the speedy legs of veteran Johnny Horillo.

The Eagles lost to Jefferson, 33-13 last week but they were the better team for three quarters. Their attack petered out in the closing period when the Indians scored three times.

DEPOSITS, LOANS INCREASE AT LOCAL AMERICAN TRUST

Deposits of American Trust Company on September 30 totaled $1,173,093,772 as compared with $1,124,450,936 for the corresponding date in 1952, an increase of $48,642,836.

Since June 30, 1953, deposits have increased by $57,201,556.

Loans and discounts totaled $572,741,279, as compared with $528,821,571 on September 30, 1952. United States Government Bonds totaled $363,181,799 and total resources stood at $1,261,692,458.

San Tomas Area Wants Postoffice Sub-station There

Three petitions are circulating in the San Tomas area to keep a contract postoffice in the area. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carson, proprietors of San Tomas Cleaners, operators of the contract station have resigned the post effective September 30, but at the request of San Tomas Improvement Club have agreed to continue operations until the end of October.

The petitions, organized by Mrs. W. H. Kane of San Tomas Road, and Mrs. Fred Smith, which include over 600 names in favor of retaining a contract postal station in the San Tomas area will be sent to the Governor's office in Sacramento, to Campbell Postmaster Ira H. Grim, and to the Postal Inspectors office in San Francisco, and will stress the great need and convenience of conducting postal business in the immediate area.

The Carsons said they resigned the position because of the amount of work involved which includes the filing of reports, responsibility for stamps, packages, mail orders and other postal business for very little compensation. They said they wanted to correct the impression that they do not receive a percentage on all pieces of mail handled or on any other aspect of the postal business, nor do they receive a salary of any kind, they said. They do receive a small rental check from the Post Office Department, they said.

Mrs. LAURA PAGE of Stanford Court in Campbell is leaving Sunday for Martinez where she is to board the Shasta Daylight to Portland and Hood River in Oregon and Yakima, Washington, visiting for several weeks with her son and family.

Proceeds of this entire affair will be used toward payment on the parsonage mortgage.

If you have items to donate to the auction or rummage sale leave at the Parish House or phone Rumfords, FRanklin 8-5442 or the Helmbolds, FRanklin 8-2872.

Mrs. FRED FELLMAN of 74 E. Hamilton Avenue will entertain Circle One of the WSCS, October 8. Mrs. G. L. YORK will assist at this meeting.

ROBERT BRYDON of West Latimer Avenue returned home Monday of this week after a successful operation performed last Thursday morning at San Jose Hospital.

Coach Muir Sees Tough Fight For Grid Title Ahead

Coach Jim Muir and Mel Stein, assistant coach both of Campbell Union High School gave a resume of football prospects in the Santa Clara Valley League for the 1953 season when they appeared at the noon meeting of the Beverly-Burbank Rotary Club on Tuesday.

The Campbell team, champions of the 1952 season, face strong competition for the title, especially from Mountain View and Fremont both of which teams have strong reserves, it was pointed out.

Stein said an opportunity is set up for boys of all weights to engage in sports under trained leaders, especially in basketball. Junior Morgan, coach of the 130 pound team was also present.

Edward Stanley was program chairman. The Beverly-Burbank area is in the Campbell high school district. The meeting was held at Lou's Village in Burbank.
